To reduce the fire risk posed by lithium-ion batteries, the City of New York supports the installation of outdoor e-bike battery charging and swapping cabinets on public sidewalks. Through an agreement with the New York City Department of Transportation (DOT) called a revocable consent (RC).

To this end, the NYC Department of Transportation (DOT) recently opened applications for external sidewalk-based e-bike charging and battery-swapping cabinets. Owners can now apply to install these cabinets directly outside residential or mixed-use buildings through the city's revocable consent.

The New York City Department of Transportation (NYC DOT) has finalized rules allowing property owners and tenants to apply for the installation of e-bike battery swapping and charging cabinets on public sidewalks. The initiative builds on a successful pilot program that reduced in-home battery.

NOTICE OF ADOPTION relating to the New York City Department of Transportation's amendment to Section 7-04(a) of Title 34 of the Rules of the City of New York to authorize the granting of revocable consents to construct or maintain electric micromobility device battery swapping and charging cabinets.

NYC officials hope to minimize the number of fires caused by unsafe e-battery charging practices. In an effort to reduce apartment fires caused by issues related to e-battery charging trends, the New York City Department of Transportation (NYC DOT) has announced that property owners and tenants in.
