From 15 February to 18 May 2025, the Museum of Decorative Arts and Design in Riga (Skārņu iela 10) invites to visit an impressive Baltic contemporary glass art exhibition entitled Layers, embracing the work of 24 talented artists from Latvia, Estonia, and Lithuania. The Baltic glass art exhibition.

Riga, known for its stunning Art Nouveau heritage, is also home to a fascinating collection of modern architecture that reflects the city's evolution into a contemporary European capital. From glass-covered skyscrapers to innovative cultural centers, Riga's modern skyline offers a striking contrast.

The objective of the Volta project is to design and build a novel hybrid glass furnace combining electric melting and oxygen/gas combustion. The integrated design provides an alternative to the mostly natural gas fired flat glass industry. Marc Foguegne, VP Sustainability at AGC Glass Europe and.

The museum has a large collection of glasswork reflecting the industrial art of the Art Nouveau period and the ongoing development of the sector. In the 1900s there were several glass factories in Riga, the largest of them were Jacob Beck's factory and Kerkovius & Co, as well as the Baltic glass.
