How do I know if my inverter is good in Malaysia?

Make sure the inverter meets Malaysia's grid codes and safety regulations. Look for SIRIM certification or other recognized approvals to avoid issues during installation or inspection. A longer warranty (usually 5–10 years) is a good sign of quality. Also, check if the brand has local service centers or partners in Malaysia.

What is a solar inverter?

A solar inverter is a device that converts direct current (DC) electricity from solar panels into alternating current (AC), which is what most appliances and the power grid use. It's one of the most important parts of any solar setup. Choosing the right inverter matters because it directly affects how well the system runs.
